About Me

I am Vrinda Shirsat, an aspiring Graphic Designer, and a Communication Design student at Atlas Skilltech University's Indian School of Design and Innovation (ISDI). Being a morning person, I hope that with the beginning of each new day, I get to help more and more people with the creative skills that I inherit. While doing this, I also look forward to learning new things from every individual in my life.

Everything you can imagine is real.
